

WORK TO BE MARKED FOR 8 JUNE – 12 JUNE

LANGUAGE

ACTIVITY 7 p. 94

1. a) The baby cried loudly.
b) His father hugged him.
c) He is very kind.
d) He is going to change him.

f) My grandmother is going for a walk.
g) I will go with her.
h) She is fit and strong.
i) I love her.
j) I should spend more time with her.
2. a) Tomorrow, I will go/am going to school.
b) This morning I bought my school uniform.
c) My little sister is/was excited for me.
e) My older brother finished school last year.
3. a) Look at my mother. She is laughing.
b) This is our race. We are running.
c) Wait for me. I am coming.
d) Yesterday, we were looking for you.
e) Yesterday, I was hoping to see you.
4. a) Running (gerund) the 800 metres is (verb) Caster Semenya's favourite distance.
b) I did not like (verb) the loud singing (gerund) at the party.
c) The blowing (gerund) of vuvuzelas at sports matches is (verb) very noisy.
d) Running (gerund) is (verb) a popular sport.

e) Stealing (gerund) is (verb) against the law.

ACTIVITY 8 p. 96

1. a) When I visited my cousin, we played games.

b) After we played, we went to play soccer in the park.

c) We need to practise more because we are not very good.

d) We will go to the movies after we have done our chores.

e) We worked hard because we wanted to go.

2. a) After I finish school, I want to study medicine.

b) I will thank all of my teacher after I have succeeded in my studies.

c) I hope to get a bursary because my marks are very good.

d) Although I word hard, I also play hard.

e) Since I am a hard worker, I get good results.

LITERATURE TO BE MARKED

MEMORANDUM – THE SNAKE CHIEF

UNDERSTAND THE STORY

1. The father visited another village looking for suitors for his daughters and heard the news there.
2. She is headstrong/independent/proud/she wants to break the custom/she wants to do it her way.

3. CHARACTER

WHAT THEY OFFER THE DAUGHTER

A mouse

To show her the way to the chief's village

A frog

To show her the way to the chief's village

A goatherd

Asks for food

An old woman

Advice

Laughing trees

Nothing – they laugh at her

A man carrying his head

Water

A girl

Advice

4. She prepared the bread badly/did not grind the millet finely; she was afraid.
5. Mpunzanyama accepts everything offered to her and listens to the advice; she is friendly and courteous to them, unlike her sister.
6. Mpunzanyana grinds the millet finely, listens to the advice and does not show her fear of the snake chief.
7. Her bread was delicious.
8. Mpunzanyana's brave words break the spell/Mpunzanyana agrees to marry the snake chief.

EXPLORE LANGUAGE AND LITERARY DEVICES

1. The animals and people offer advice that will help the sisters; the reactions to these characters reveal the good and bad qualities of the sisters.
2. The elder sister is less important than Mpunzanyana; she is not a nice person, she fails and is forgotten.